

1990 ITAA Fellow – Ruth Ayres

Ruth W. Ayres was Professor Emeritus, Pennsylvania State University until her death December 15, 1989. She brought her expertise as economist and scholar to the field of textiles and clothing. She was a creative leader whose international experience provided a world view. She inspired her students to seek to solve human problems and challenged them to do their best.