Day & Night Choghdiyas:

Definition

Choghadiya Muhurat is more popular in North India and used as ready reckoner to find a good Muhurat without consulting a learned scholar in astrology. In South India a similar concept of Gowri Panchangam exists which is very much similar to Choghadiya Muhurat.

About Choghadiya Table

Choghadiya or Chogadia is used for checking auspicious time to start new work. Traditionally Choghadiya is used for travel muhurthas but due to its simplicity it is used for any muhurtha. There are four good Choghadiya, Amrit, Shubh, Labh and Chal to start auspicious work.

Three bad Choghadiya, Rog, Kaal and Udveg should be avoided. The time between sunrise and sunset is called day Choghadiya and the time between sunset and next day sunrise is called night Choghadiya. About Vaar Vela, Kaal Vela and Kaal Ratri it is believed that no auspicious work should be done during Vaar Vela, Kaal Vela and Kaal Ratri. Vaar Vela and Kaal Vela prevail during day time while Kaal Ratri prevails during night time. It is believed that all Manglik works done during these timings are not fruitful.

Jai Jinendra

The JAINA Calendar committee is pleased to present the 2026 JAINA Calendar. We are once again able to distribute the JAINA Calendars at no cost to Jain families across North America, thanks to our generous donors and dedicated volunteers.

This year's edition is a remarkable achievement, featuring stunning derasars from around the world & in North America, mostly built or renovated in the recent times. We hope the beauty and detail of each temple inspires you. Simply scan the QR codes on each page in this calendar to learn more about these beautiful temples. We hope that you & your family will stop by doing darshan/pooja at one or more of these derasars from around the world in near future.

The JAINA Calendar Committee and JAINA Executive Board thank you for your ongoing support, which has sustained this project for over 25 years. We would like to honor Dr. Pandya, the visionary behind the JAINA Calendar, whose initiative during his presidency made it a colorful and informative masterpiece. His son, Mr. Rajiv Pandya, continued the program, followed by Mrs. Jayana Shah and Mr. Giriraj Jain for many years, before I assumed the Chair in 2024. We also appreciate our Executive Editors Mrs. Kirtida Shah & Mrs. Amita Gandhi Doshi, JAINA EC Liaison Mrs. Kalpana Gandhi & Mr. Dhimen Vora and his team at Arhant Technosoft, India, for helping maintain the high-quality standards Dr. Pandya established.

We are also humbled by the divine blessings from Shri Vijay Kankratnasurishwarji with all tithies & auspicious days provided (validated) to us with the help of Mr. Nilesh Jhaveri. Wishing everyone a very happy, healthy, prosperous and peaceful new year.
