

YCL MEMBERSHIP

Mission Statement

The objective of the Young Construction Leaders membership is to develop an informal communication network amongst Local future leaders (under 40 years) in order to:

- Promote network relationships within the construction industry.
- Develop a forum to establish industry contacts and leads.
- Provide information and industry activities/opportunities that will enhance and profit the individual and their respective company.
- Promote Leadership Development by providing opportunities for member organizations to invest in their employee's career progression with the goal of producing the next generation of construction leaders.

YCL is restricted to individuals who are employees of LDCA member companies.
