Lake Howell High School

Lake Howell Culinary, a Seminole County Public Schools Program of Emphasis, offers four levels of Culinary Arts taught by three full-time instructors. Students gain hands-on experience in a commercial kitchen, learning recipe execution, food safety, equipment operation, cleaning, and maintenance. The program runs a five-day faculty restaurant and fulfills on- and off-campus catering orders. By their fourth year, students may earn ServSafe and NRFSP Food Safety Manager certifications, providing valuable credentials and a competitive advantage for foodservice management employment.
