

Andrea Neal, OTR/L, CLT - LANA

Andrea Neal, OTR/L, CLT - LANA, has worked in healthcare for over 25 years in both administrative and clinical roles. She began her career working in healthcare finance at the Wexner Medical Center, and transitioned into allied health after obtaining a master's degree in occupational therapy from The Ohio State University. She specialized in oncology rehabilitation and is also a certified lymphedema therapist. For 10 years, she worked at the Nashville Breast Center as a dedicated therapist in breast oncology and lymphedema rehabilitation/research, including providing clinical instruction for doctoral students at Belmont University. She now serves as the Physician Liaison for the Vanderbilt-Ingram Cancer Center and is on the board of the Tennessee Breast Cancer Coalition.

Disclosures: I have no financial or non-financial interests.