

Bryan Spinelli, PT, PhD, CLT-LANA

Bryan is a physical therapist and Associate Professor in the Department of Physical Therapy at Thomas Jefferson University. He graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Physical Therapy in 2000 and a Master of Science in 2001 from Northeastern University. He received his Doctorate of Philosophy from Drexel University in 2016.

Bryan is a Lymphology Association of North America Certified Lymphedema Therapist and continues to practice as a physical therapist at Jefferson Moss-Magee Rehabilitation, Jefferson Health. Bryan works predominantly with persons living with and beyond cancer. He has lectured, published and/or presented at conferences in the areas of cancer rehabilitation, lymphedema, and shoulder pain and dysfunction in cancer survivors. Bryan's research interests focus on promoting physical activity and exercise in cancer survivors, assessment and management of cancer-related lymphedema, and shoulder dysfunction.

Disclosures: I have no financial or non-financial interests