

Erin Sokalsky, ATC, PTA, CLT-LANA, WCC,MPM

Erin Sokalsky, ATC, PTA, CLT – LANA, WCC, MPM is a Physical Therapist Assistant who treated patients for almost 10 years before moving into the compression therapy industry where she has gained extensive experience in customer service management, marketing, and product development. With the goal of furthering the awareness of lymphedema and compression therapy, her focus has been the education of clinicians, fitters, and patients as a speaker at national and international conferences and symposiums. She currently works for Essity as the National Clinical Manager – Lymphology and Phlebology.

Disclosures: I have no financial or non-financial interests.