

Laurie Fitz, PT,CLT

Laurie Fitz has been a physical therapist for over 20 years. She specializes in outpatient cancer rehabilitation and lymphedema management. Additionally, she teaches at the university level on these topics, serves as her department's lead clinical liaison with Johns Hopkins EMR team, coordinates EMR training and is the clinical resource for departmental billing and documentation compliance.

Disclosures: I have no financial or non-financial interests.