

LaRae Murray, OTD, OTR/L

LaRae Murray is an Assistant Professor in Occupational Therapy teaching in both the MSOT and OTD programs. She received her Bachelor of Arts degree from Vanderbilt University in Ecology, Evolution, and Organismal Biology and went on to earn her clinical doctorate (OTD) in Occupational Therapy from Belmont University. She specializes in adult rehabilitation and has practiced in a variety of adult-based occupational therapy settings including inpatient (acute, SNF, inpatient rehab) and outpatient neurological and orthopedic rehabilitation. LaRae's professional interests include injury prevention in musicians, patient advocacy, healthcare simulation, and interprofessional education.

Disclosures: I have no financial or non-financial interests.