

Nasreen Starner OTR/L, CLT

Nasreen Starner is a graduate of The Ohio State University in 2000, where she earned a degree in occupational therapy. Since beginning her work with patients affected by lymphatic impairments in 2005, she has devoted her career to this specialized area of practice including helping to establish oncology rehabilitation programs for two major healthcare systems. Currently, she serves as a certified lymphedema therapist at Mercy Health Cancer Center and is also the co-founder of Cleveland Lymphatic Therapy, a private practice dedicated to comprehensive lymphatic care.

Nasreen has presented at numerous state and national conferences and has contributed to prominent publications. Actively engaged in the lymphedema community, she remains deeply committed to advancing care and resources for individuals affected by lymphedema and oncology-related conditions.

Disclosures: I have no financial or non-financial interests.