R. Taylor Scott, D.O., named MAOFP President

Okemos, Michigan -- On Saturday, August 6th, the Michigan Association of Osteopathic Family Physicians (MAOFP) installed R. Taylor Scott, D.O., as their President for 2016-2017.

R. Taylor Scott, D.O., joined the MAOFP Board of Directors in 2009. Taylor has served in a variety of committee and Chairperson positions with the MAOFP. He is the Director of Osteopathic Patient Care Curriculum at Michigan State University College of Osteopathic Medicine (MSUCOM). He provides leadership for departmental faculty in oversight of curriculum planning, implementation and evaluation of pre-clerkship and clerkship curriculum. Taylor has experience in medical education in both pre and post graduate settings, having served as Clinical Skills coordinator at MSUCOM as well as Internship Director at Ingham Regional Medical Center in Lansing, Michigan. He also currently serves as Osteopathic Director of Medical Education at McLaren Greater Lansing Hospital. He has a clinical practice on the MSU campus with the MSU HealthTeam and is jointly appointed in the MSUCOM Department of Family and Community Medicine. Dr. Scott has interests in the support of evaluation of healthcare professionals in a variety of fields and is especially interested in communication in healthcare. He is board certified in Osteopathic Family Practice.

The Michigan Association of Osteopathic Family Physicians, Inc., is a non-profit association whose mission is to advance the standards of family practice in the field of osteopathic medicine in the state of Michigan. The MAOFP works to encourage and improve educational opportunities for the training of family physicians and to promote and maintain the highest moral and ethical standards in the practice of medicine. MAOFP is an affiliate society of the American College of Osteopathic Family Physicians (ACOFP).
