The May General Membership Meeting will feature a presentation by John Palatiello and TJ Frazier. MSS is developing an updated strategic plan that includes a number of new programs, activities and initiatives to enhance the image of surveyors in Maryland. The session will introduce the new draft plan and provide an opportunity for member input. Mr. Palatiello serves as Executive Director of MSS and MAPPS, a national trade association of private sector geospatial firms and is the Government Affairs Consultant to the National Society of Professional Surveyors (NSPS). Mr. Frazier is the President of MSS. The session will look at current and emerging issues affecting the profession nationally and here in Maryland.

1 "A" - Level CPC will be awarded for attendance at this session.
