

Erica F. Buckley
Nixon Peabody

Erica F. Buckley leads the Cooperatives & Condominium practice, where she oversees various transactional matters and government investigations for clients involving real estate securities and other housing-related issues. Ms. Buckley is the former chief of the Real Estate Finance Bureau of the New York Attorney General's office. During her tenure as chief, she oversaw the staff charged with the review of securities filings such as offering plans, amendments and no-action letters, as well as enforcement activities including Martin Act and Executive Law investigations and litigations.
