

Johnny Din
Chief Executive Officer
Cycamore Capital

Johnny Din is the Chief Executive Officer at Cycamore Capital, a Live-Work-Play-Create platform with a mission to curate spaces for artists, entrepreneurs, millennials, and global citizens. Prior to founding Cycamore, he was a Principal at Clarett International, a division of The Clarett Group focusing on cross-border real estate transactions. Mr. Din has also spent time at Lippo Realty and Silverpeak in New York, and Deloitte and The Walt Disney Company in Los Angeles. He began his career in the Investment Banking Division of Lehman Brothers, where he advised fortune 500 companies and private equity clients on M&A and financing efforts.

Mr. Din graduated honors with a Bachelor of Arts in Business Economics from University of California Los Angeles, and a Riordan MBA Fellow from the UCLA Anderson School of Management. He holds a Certificate in Hotel Operations from New York University and a Master of Science in Real Estate Development from Columbia University, where he was the President of the MSRED Student Council, a Pension Real Estate Association Scholar, a Wells Fargo GDS Scholar, a William Kinne Fellow, and a recipient of the Scholastic Performance Award for the top 3 graduates. Mr. Din was named a Next Generation Leader by the Committee of 100, and is currently on the UCLA REAG Board. Mr. Din is also an Adjunct Professor at Columbia University, New York University, and Fordham University teaching real estate courses.