

Christopher S. Moore

President

CSM Capital Corporation

Christopher S. Moore is currently the President of CSM Capital Corporation, a New York-based family office/asset management company. Before CSM Capital Corporation, Mr. Moore was Vice Chairman of ABN AMRO. Prior to the acquisition of ING Barings LLC by ABN AMRO, he was a Senior Managing Director of ING Barings LLC and head of Corporate Finance in the Americas and Deputy Chief Executive of the Americas.

Mr. Moore was Head of Fixed Income and Chairman of the Investment Banking Division of Furman Selz before its acquisition by ING Barings LLC. He was also a member of Furman Selz's Operating Committee and Board of Directors.

Prior to that, Mr. Moore joined UBS Securities Inc. in April 1993 as a Managing Director in charge of Fixed Income Capital Markets and a member of the firm's Investment Banking Committee.

From January 1990 through April 1993, Mr. Moore was President of Field Point Capital Corporation, a Greenwich -based merchant banking firm. Prior to joining Field Point Capital, Mr. Moore was with Columbia Savings and Loan Association as an Executive Vice President in charge of Corporate Finance and a member of its Executive Committee.

Before joining Columbia in March 1989, Mr. Moore had been with Bear, Stearns & Co. Inc. as a General Partner and, ultimately, a Senior Managing Director since 1984 in charge of their Capital Markets and International Corporate Finance Departments. He also served as a member of the firm's Management and Commitment Committees. Prior to that, Mr. Moore was a Vice President at E.F. Hutton and Co., Inc.

Mr. Moore received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Princeton University in 1979. He is 61 years old, has two sons and resides in New York and Southampton.