Step Up and Support One Place

Hello Members:

We are only a week away from our 2011 Charity Event benefitting One Place Family Justice Center. The Cinco de Mayo party at Wynlakes has received an overwhelming response. Area businesses and fellow citizens have really stepped up and committed to either sponsoring the event and/or donating items to the silent/live auctions. These generous donations will allow MCBA and OPFJC to raise needed funds to ensure expeditious and compassionate service to abused children, the elderly and victims of domestic violence.

Although we continue to receive sponsorships and auction items, a listing of our current sponsorships and donated auction items are listed on pages 2-4 of this Docket. As you can see, we have an impressive collection of auction items for purchase. Remember, any item you purchase is tax deductible!! If you would like to purchase a trip to Europe, Disney World, Washington, D.C. or New York and deduct the cost of that trip on your taxes, this is the event for you. If you would like to bid on a pair of custom diamond earrings from Marquiere’s, antiques from Pickwick ,or spa packages for your wife or mother for Mother’s Day, you should not miss this event. If you love sports and would like to bid on Dallas Cowboy Club Seats, footballs signed by Nick Saban and Gene Chizick or have the opportunity for you and a group to view, feel and photograph Muhammad Ali’s robe, Babe Ruth’s uniform, Dale Earnhardt items, items from Coach Paul Bear Bryant and much more while giving your wife the opportunity to try on Marilyn Monroe’s fur coat, then you will want to join us on Cinco de Mayo. And don’t forget the EXCLUSIVE JUDGE PRICE PACKAGE. This package includes an opportunity to play golf and have lunch with Judge Charles Price and also receive a signed copy of Profiles in Courage For Our Time by Caroline Kennedy. Priceless!!

I would like to thank the firms who have already generously contributed to this charity event. Until the 5th, we will continue to press firms for sponsorship and encourage our members to attend. Our profession requires us to serve our community. There is no greater service than helping those who need it most. Please make it a priority to not only attend this event, but to commit to encouraging at least one other attorney or community member to attend. Tickets can be purchased at www.mcbar.org or by visiting the Montgomery County Courthouse Law Library, the One Place Family Justice Center or at the event. Your support and attendance will ensure success. Together, let’s make this a well-attended charity event, a record setting auction and a GOOD TIME!!

I look forward to seeing you May 5, 2011 at Wynlakes.

Leisure - JSL Corner
Submitted by Rose Metzger

1. Remember to keep holy the Sabbath Day. (one of the Ten Commandments). 2. “The more complex the mind, the greater the need for the simplicity of play.” (Captain Kirk, Star Trek, Shore Leave episode). 3. Leisure, The Basis of Culture, by Josef Peiper. 4. Vacātiōn, L, freedom from duty. 5. Time you enjoyed wasting is not wasted time. (Successories© caption). Give up? These references remind us that occasionally we need to step back from the routine of our daily lives in order to maintain an inner peace and contentment. The rigors of ‘the law’ day in and day out, with no effort to recharge, is a sure path to burn out.

With the end of the school year around the corner, and the heat and humidity of another Alabama summer encouraging a welcome indolence, it’s the perfect time to diverge from the everyday. Here are a few ideas to get you started. Be a visitor at a different church for one Sunday. Hold a 1-day moratorium on electronics: no alarm clocks, no emails, no TV/DVD, no tweeting or facebook. Explore your own city, a local museum or monument, or take a walking tour of a historic area. Go to the library or a bookstore and browse an area you usually don’t enter. On a clear night, (spray on some bug repellant first) toss a sheet on the ground, lie down, and watch the night sky for awhile. Simply interjecting moments of recreation in your life on a regular basis is more important than how you go about doing it. This summer, take time to smell the roses.

Note: MCBA wants to thank Rose Metzger for her monthly columns for Jones School of Law. She has written as a student volunteer.
