Current Bylaws

ARTICLE 5 - DUES

The Board of Directors shall fix the amount and time of payment of dues for all classes of membership in the Association. Dues are due and payable on or before January 31 of each year. Dues shall not be increased without the approval of the membership of the Association at an annual, regular or special meeting. However, dues may be decreased at any time by the Board of Directors without approval of membership.

The annual dues for each membership class, upon adoption of these Bylaws, shall be as follows:

- Licensed to practice over 2 years: $125.00
- Licensed to practice less than 2 years: $85.00
- Legal Assistant: $65.00
- Military: $85.00
- Government Attorneys: $105.00
- Student Membership: $25.00
- Retired: $25.00
- Honorary: $ None

Dues for new members who join the Association after July 1 of each year shall be one-half of the amount then set for the class of membership for which they qualify, provided that they have been licensed to practice law or established a residence in Montgomery County within that same year.

Effie Hawthorne is a proud native of Montgomery. She graduated from Auburn University at Montgomery summa cum laude and received her J.D. from Thomas Goode Jones School of Law. Effie currently works as an Assistant Attorney General and the Director of Board Operations for the Alabama Bureau of Pardons and Paroles. Effie has been active in the MCBA since law school. She recently served as the President for the MCBA Women's Section and ex officio member of the MCBA Board of Directors for three years. She is currently a board member for the MCBA's Young Lawyers Section. She is also a member of the Alabama State Bar's Young Lawyers, Women's, and Government Lawyers Sections. Effie serves on the ASB's Quality of Life, Health, and Wellness Task Force and the 19th Amendment Centennial Celebration Task Force. She is a Barrister member of the Hugh Maddox American Inn of Court and serves on the American Bar Association's Paralegal Studies Advisory Committee at Auburn University of Montgomery. In addition, Effie serves on the Junior Executive Board for Child Protect, a non-profit organization based in Montgomery that supports the victims of child abuse. Effie is an avid lover of reading, Pure Barre, and Auburn football. She is married to Charlie Hawthorne, a Deputy District Attorney for Montgomery County, and they welcomed their first child (Charles) in January.

Amanda Senn is the Deputy Director of Enforcement and General Counsel for the Alabama Securities Commission where she has been employed since 2008. She is responsible for advising the Commission on securities-related matter, for investigating and prosecuting fraudulent actions surrounding the sales of securities throughout the state of Alabama and has coordinated and litigated numerous multi-jurisdictional administrative, civil, and criminal matters. She also serves as a legislative liaison for the Commission. In that capacity, she advocates for investor protection and market integrity for Alabama and its residents. Amanda is involved on both the State and local level in various organizations which address issues and promote awareness of Elder Abuse and Investment Fraud; including the Montgomery County Elder Justice Task Force and the Alabama Interagency Council for the Prevention of Elder Abuse. She is actively involved in the North American Securities Administrators Association (NASAA), where she serves as Chairman of the Cybersecurity Committee, Co-Chair of the Broker Dealer Market and Regulatory Policy Committee and is a member of project groups in the Investment Adviser and Enforcement sections. She is a frequent speaker on Alabama's securities laws and Elder Justice, and an instructor in a securities litigation course offered through NASAA. Amanda is a member of the American Inns of Court, serves on the board of the Alabama Association of Regulatory Boards (AARB), the Montgomery Bicycle Club, and is a long-standing volunteer and supporter of the Montgomery Miracle League. A Montgomery, Alabama native, Amanda graduated from Huntingdon College, where she is a member of the Alumni Board, and received her J.D. from the Cumberland School of Law, Samford University, Birmingham, AL.
Brian D. Mann became a member of the Alabama State Bar on September 29, 1998. Brian is a member of the Montgomery County Bar Association. He is a graduate of Huntingdon College (1995) having been named its Young Alumnus of the Year (2006). He is also a graduate of the University of Alabama School of Law (1998). Brian and his wife Chessie are residents of the Old Cloverdale neighborhood. He serves as the Mayor (President) of the Old Cloverdale Association. Brian is also a member of the Historic Preservation Commission of the City of Montgomery. Brian is a former Bar Commissioner of the Alabama State Bar (2008-2011). He is a past chairman of the Real Property, Probate and Trust Section of the Alabama State Bar (2011-2013). He served on the Alabama Electronic Recording Commission (2009). He is a former president of the Elmore County Bar Association (2005-2018). Brian currently serves on the board of directors of both the Elmore County Family Resource Center and The F. Scott and Zelda Fitzgerald Museum. Brian has a general, civil practice focused primarily in the areas of divorce, family, probate, adoption, small business, and real property law.

Matthew Ward is an Assistant Attorney General & Assistant General Counsel for the Alabama Medicaid Agency, where he represents the State of Alabama before federal, state, and administrative trial and appellate courts across Alabama. Before his time at Medicaid, he was a Staff Attorney with the Montgomery office of Legal Services Alabama, representing victims of domestic violence and clients with landlord-tenant issues. In law school, he interned with the Office of the Attorney General of Alabama, the Alabama Supreme Court, and the State Health Planning & Development Agency. But his legal path began in undergrad where he worked with Melton, Espy & Williams, P.C., here in Montgomery. Matthew is actively involved in both the Montgomery County Bar Association and the Alabama State Bar. He is currently serving in his second year of both Treasurer of the MCBA Government Lawyer Section and Chair of the MCBA Bar Relations (Social) Committee. Additionally, Matthew serves as Vice-Chair of ASB’s Pro Bono Committee; an Executive Committee member of the Young Lawyers Section; and a member of both the Elections, Ethics & Government Relations and In-House Counsel & Government Lawyers Sections. In 2019, Matthew was also chosen to serve as an Executive Committee member of the Montgomery County Bar Foundation; selected as an Associate of the Hugh Maddox American Inn of Court; and elected to the Junior Executive Board of Child Protect Children Advocacy Center. A native of Montgomery, Matthew is a magna cum laude and Distinguished Honors graduate of Auburn Montgomery, where he was a four-year recipient of a Principal Scholarship and participant in the University Honors Program, and a cum laude graduate of Thomas Goode Jones School of Law, where he was a recipient of both a three-year Eagle Scholarship and two CALI “Excellence for the Future” Awards. While at Jones, he was also actively involved in both academic and student leadership, serving as Editor of the FAULKNER LAW REVIEW; Member of the National-Quarterfinalist-and-Best-Brief-Winning National Health Law Moot Court Competition Team; Vice-President of the Student Bar Association; President of the Jones Public Interest Law Foundation; President of the American Association of Justice; Clerk for the A. Patterson Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta; Student Ambassador; and Academic Success Fellow. A dedicated public servant, Matthew was recognized for dedicating nearly 500 hours to public service in his last two years in law school by being awarded the Alabama State Bar’s Pro Bono Award in the Law Student category, as well as being inducted as a Fellow of the Jones Public Interest Law Society and receiving both its Merit of Pro Bono Achievement and its Ellen Brooks Merit for Public Service.
