

Higher Education Compliance Day

Tuesday, September 10, 2024
Ohio Dominican University

- 8:30 a.m. | Networking Breakfast - Sponsored by *Hallmark Dining
- 9:15 a.m. | Welcome
C. Todd Jones, President & General Counsel, AICUO
Shonna Reidlinger, Interim President, Ohio Dominican University
- 9:30 a.m. | State and Federal Regulations on Sex and Gender
Erin French, Partner, Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP
- Explore the impact of state and federal regulations on sex and gender, focusing on the Ohio Transgender Bathroom Bill, the Save Women's Sports Act, and recent updates to Title IX. Attendees will gain insights into how these laws shape policies while learning strategies to promote gender equity.
- 10:30 a.m. | Break
- 10:45 a.m. | Recreational Marijuana Legalization: What This Means for Your Campus
Josh Nolan, Higher Ed Partner & Co-Chair, Bricker Graydon
- This presentation will examine the implications of Ohio's recreational marijuana legalization for universities, particularly the potential changes in campus policies, training requirements, and positions that currently require drug testing for faculty and staff. Attendees will gain an understanding of how the reclassification of cannabis could impact institutional operations and compliance.
- 11:45 a.m. | Networking Lunch - Sponsored by *Hallmark Dining
- 12:30 p.m. | The Supreme Court Ends Chevron Deference—What Now?
Dallas Kratzer, Member, Steptoe & Johnson
Kalynn Walls, Associate, Steptoe & Johnson
- The recent Supreme Court decision to eliminate Chevron deference—a legal doctrine that compels courts to defer to a federal agency's interpretation of ambiguous laws—has profound implications for higher education. Without Chevron, the regulatory landscape for colleges and universities could become increasingly unpredictable and chaotic.
- 1:30 p.m. | Paying Student Athletes Post NCAA/Power 5 Settlement
Luke Fedlam, Managing Partner & Founder, AdvanceNIL
- Examine the repercussions of the NCAA/Power 5 settlement on student-athlete compensation, particularly how the payment of athletes in Power 5 conferences impacts Division II and III schools. Attendees will gain insights into the broader implications for competitive balance, recruitment, and financial planning
- 2:30 p.m. | Adjourn