

Tax Exemption FOR FEDERAL CREDIT UNIONS ONLY

This is an affidavit from _____ FCU to meet the requirements of the state of North Carolina Department of Revenue Sales and Use Tax Regulation 48. Section b. Our Federal Tax number is _____.

This is an affidavit from _____ FCU to meet the requirements of the state of South Carolina Department of Revenue Code section 12-26-2120(2). Our Federal Tax number is _____.

We are charter number _____ under the laws of the National Credit Union Administration, an agency of the U.S. government. As such, Federal Credit Unions are exempt from sales and use tax in accordance with Section 1768 or Title 12 of the US Code. We are not subject to North Carolina sales tax as set forth in the State of North Carolina Department of Revenue, Sales and Use Tax regulation 48. Federal Credit Unions' exemption from sales and use tax is also in accordance with Statute 405 of Statutory Authority G.S. 105-164.13.

Please submit form to:

Wild Dunes Resort

Allison Walker

allison.walker@wilddunesresort.com

TAXATION

Hotel acknowledges that under Section 1768 of Title 12 of the United States Code (12 USC 1768), federally chartered credit unions are tax exempt if payment is by a federal credit union's official check or with a credit card issued to the federal credit union.