JF DAYS

These days are so significant to those lobbying bills because it means it's the last day that a bill can be favorably reported out of a committee. Last week was JF day for the Commerce, Environment, Human Services, Higher Education, Transportation, and Energy & Technology Committees. This week is JF Day for the Education Government Administration & Elections, Planning & Development, and Public Health Committees. The last three committees to JF bills are Judiciary (April 7), Appropriations (April 27), and Finance (April 28) Committees.
