Universal Precautions

Quiz
Please provide answers to the following to show how well you understand the information presented during this program.

1. The most deadly forms of infection are the Hepatitis C and the AIDS viruses.
   a. True
   b. False

2. There is no evidence that HIV is spread by causal contact.
   a. True
   b. False

3. Healthcare workers don’t need to wash their hands after potential exposure situations as long as gloves have been used.
   a. True
   b. False

4. All blood specimens should be considered hazardous.
   a. True
   b. False

5. Cleaning doesn’t always ensure bacteria and other infectious organisms are killed.
   a. True
   b. False