Volunteers Needed

National Marine Educators Association
2016 Annual Conference
Orlando, Florida
Sunday, June 26th – Friday, July 1st

Formal and informal marine educators from across the United States and around the world will come together to help promote the mission of "making known the world of water."

Help us host our annual conference at the Renaissance Orlando at SeaWorld. Help is needed for all opportunities from 7:00 AM to 7:00 PM.

Volunteers who work at least one full day will be able to attend sessions, exhibits, and lunches! All volunteers will also receive NMEA t-shirts.

NMEA 2016 is being hosted by the Florida Marine Science Educators Association
