

About the National Housing Conference

The National Housing Conference has been defending the American Home since 1931. We believe everyone in America should have equal opportunity to live in a quality, affordable home in a thriving community. NHC convenes and collaborates with our diverse membership and the broader housing and community development sectors to advance our policy, research and communications initiatives to effect positive change at the federal, state and local levels. Politically diverse and nonpartisan, NHC is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization. Learn more here.

Your support for NHC matters.

The National Housing Conference has been defending our American Home since 1931. NHC is a broad-based coalition representing the widest possible spectrum of housing. We make housing a priority. Our American Home is the foundation of everything it means to be a great nation, and that foundation is in need of defending. Working together, we can make it possible for all of us to live in a place we are proud to call home.
