Handwritten notes are a great way to communicate.

- Always be polite and show respect.
- Don’t write your disappointment or anger in your letter. Keep it professional and polite.
- Stay in frequent, regular contact if the actions on the issue affect you. Make sure your representative knows you continue to follow their progress on your issue. Include a note or phone call with your registration number.

Your contact information:

- Leave their name and phone number.
- Leave a message with something specific.

If you’re concerned about a specific bill:

- Know the bill number (ex: HB1000, SB123). If you’re concerned about a specific bill, let your representative know, they’ll appreciate your concern for their time.
- Above all, be polite, be brief, and get to the point.

If you need to speak with a legislator, ask a question.

When the Senate is in session, you can send a note into the chamber at the south end of the Capitol.

The Arkansas Senate is located at the south end of the Capitol.
