

FEMA Advisement on the Reimbursement for the Transportation of Inmates

The transportation of inmates for life-saving medical or evacuation purposes related to the COVID-19 pandemic may be considered an eligible emergency protective measure and we encourage law enforcement partners to discuss their needs with their state, tribal, territorial emergency management office, and FEMA Regional Offices.

Additional information on eligible emergency protective measures covered under a COVID-19 declaration can be found at: <https://www.fema.gov/news-release/2020/03/19/coronavirus-covid-19-pandemic-eligible-emergency-protective-measures>

Further information about eligible emergency protective measures under FEMA's Public Assistance Program can be found in the Public Assistance Program and Policy Guide, FP 104-009-2 (April 2018).
