

Genevieve Dozier, Client Business Executive, First Data

Genevieve Dozier has over 13 years of experience in the electronic payments industry and currently serves as a Client Business Executive within the ISO Solutions Division of First Data for. She was named a 2019 40 under 40 honoree recognized as a gamechanger within the industry based on her impact and professional character. She joined CardConnect in 2016 where she was the Senior Director of Business Development for Financial Institutions. Prior to CardConnect she worked at Ingenico Group as Channel Marketing Manager for North America and then BB&T, where she spent 10 years of her career with her most notable position being VP, Merchant Services Product Strategy and Sales Support. A graduate of Meredith College, Genevieve resides in North Carolina and is a mother of two and wife. She has been a Wnet member since 2016 and a Wnet Corporate Champion for First Data since 2018. She enjoys volunteer work advocating for the continued advancement of women.