Unfortunately, given the way this year has progressed, I am regretfully going to remove my nomination and candidacy for VP. I cannot seem to juggle any additional responsibilities at this time. As much as I want to, the demands of my position have become extremely overwhelming and I am doing good to just keep my head above water, but just like Dory, I "Just Keep Swimming, Just Keep Swimming" is what I pray about day in and day out.

Thank you for the wonderful honor and opportunity to serve and even been nominated.
