

Suzette Brawner

September 16, 2018

Think about it:

- You were born an original, don't die a copy.
- When the game is over, the king and the pawn go back in the same box.
- Never burn the bridge today you may need to walk across tomorrow.
- How we react should be based on our convictions, not our circumstances.
- Be selective in your battles. Most of the time peace is far better than being right.

- Dr. Albert Ellis, a renowned psychologist said, "The best years of your life are the ones in which you decide the problems are you own. You do not blame them on your mother, the ecology, or the president. You realize that you control your own destiny."

- What are the catfish in your life? How can you use them?

- Stopping at third base doesn't add any more to the score than striking out.

- What can you conquer by the end of the year by tapping into the power of a little bit?
- ... and then some.
- Never live in the past but always learn from it.
- Draw some margin in your life. Margin is where good things happen.
- Change your default from negative to positive.
- “If you are always judging people, you have no time to love them.” ~ Mother Teresa
- What do you need to dump out of your backpack?
- Laughter can dissolve fear, pain, and anxiety. Laugh more every day.