

MML 81st Annual Conference

MML's 81st Annual Conference took place Sept. 20-23 in Kansas City, with nearly 650 attendees and nearly 200 cities represented. Topics covered included debt management, council procedures, cyber activism, effective communications, collective bargaining and much more.

More than 135 exhibitors shared their latest products and services with attendees. Attendees also enjoyed a reception at the National World War I Museum, with an opportunity to tour the exhibits.

Many thanks to attendees, speakers, sponsors and the city of Kansas City for a great conference! Plan to join us next year, Sept. 11-14, 2016, in St. Louis!

Kristy Dalton, aka GovGirl, shared social media engagement strategies as this year's keynote speaker.

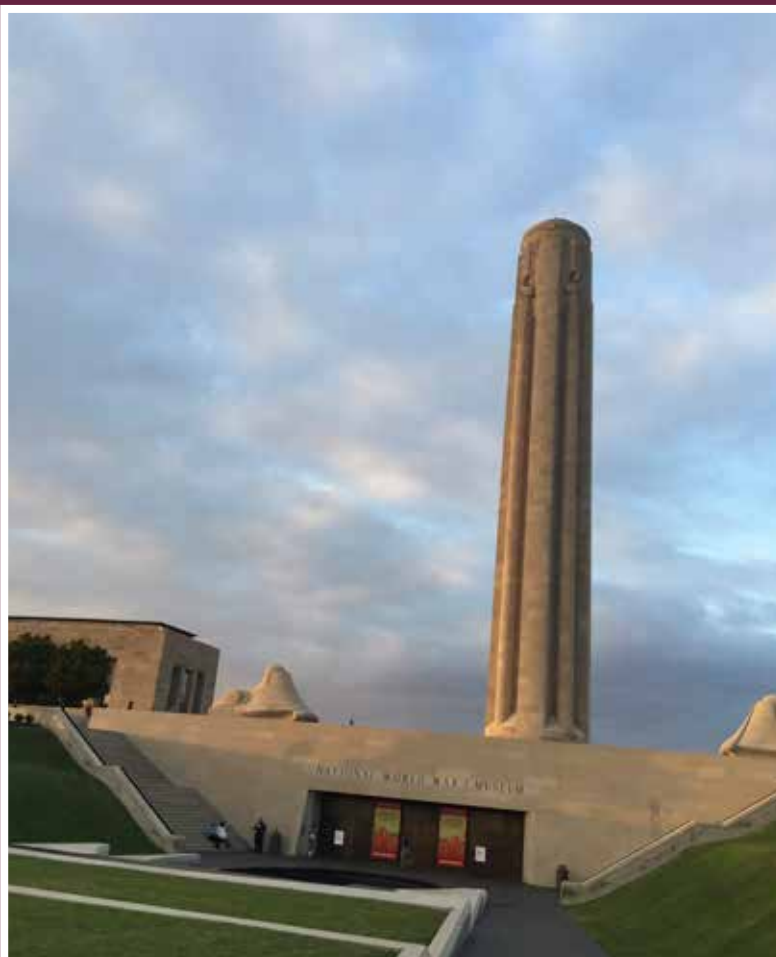

Harry S Truman visited with attendees at the Grand Opening Reception Sept. 20, 2015.

Blue Springs Mayor Carson Ross (right) accepts the 2015 MML Distinguished Service Award from MML Immediate Past President and Higginsville Mayor Bill Kolas. The award honors a current or former Missouri municipal official who has made outstanding contributions to the Missouri Municipal League.

Riverside Mayor Kathy Rose and Lee's Summit Mayor Randy Rhoads were elected MML's new vice president and president at MML's Annual Business Meeting, held each year during the Annual Conference.
