National Guard and Reservists Debt Relief Extension Act of 2023 Signed into Law by President Biden

Washington, D.C. – The National Association of Consumer Bankruptcy Attorneys (NACBA) is pleased to inform that President Biden signed into law H.R.3315, the National Guard and Reservists Debt Relief Extension Act of 2023 on December 19, 2023. This significant legislation provides a four-year extension to exclude military disability pay from the means test and faced an imminent expiration date of December 19, 2023.

Led by Congressman Steven Cohen (D-TN), the bill initially passed through the House on December 11th and the Senate on December 14th, where Senator Dick Durbin (D-IL) played a pivotal role with notable support and leadership. NACBA extends our sincere appreciation to Congressman Cohen and Senator Durbin for their strong support and leadership in championing H.R.3315 and applaud President Biden for supporting the needs of our servicemembers.

NACBA's Legislative Committee played a crucial role behind the scenes in championing this legislation. The four-year extension of the exclusion of military disability pay from the means test, as outlined in H.R.3315, stands as a testament to the collaborative efforts of NACBA and its allies in the face of the considerable challenges that confront Congress today.
