We’re a two person firm and we keep overhead low. NACBA gives us access to thousands of other lawyers across the country to share research, pleadings, briefs, current developments and strategies, often in real time. Because of NACBA, we’ll know about new cases or creditor tactics before most of our opponents – even the judges and trustees often – so we’re rarely surprised anymore. To top it off, NACBA provides the only voice in Washington exclusively devoted to fighting for consumer rights in the bankruptcy world. It’s how we fight back.

— Wendell J. Sherk, St. Louis, MO

The Value of NACBA Membership:

Membership Eligibility Criteria

Membership shall be open to the individuals set forth in 1) below who support the objectives of NACBA, subject to the exceptions set forth in 2) below:

1. Eligible groups:
   a) Attorneys;
   b) Active and retired bankruptcy judges;
   c) Bankruptcy trustees;
   d) Bankruptcy court clerks; and
   e) Agency/academic members who are attorneys not engaged in private practice and who are employees of non-profit organizations, legal services agencies, or educational institutions.

2. Exceptions:
   a) If the individual is an attorney who is engaged in the private practice of bankruptcy law; such attorney must not primarily represent creditors against consumer debtors in bankruptcy; and
   b) If the individual is an attorney who is not personally engaged in the private practice of bankruptcy law, such attorney may not be affiliated with a law firm or legal employer that in bankruptcy matters primarily represents creditors against consumer debtors.

I hereby apply for (or renew) membership in the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF CONSUMER BANKRUPTCY ATTORNEYS, INC. (NACBA), a District of Columbia non-profit corporation. I have read the Membership Eligibility Criteria and hereby affirm that I meet the Membership Eligibility Criteria. I agree to support the objectives of the corporation. I understand that the basic goals of the organization are to: (a) protect the rights of consumer bankruptcy debtors; (b) provide educational and networking opportunities for attorneys who primarily represent consumer bankruptcy debtors; and (c) educate policy makers regarding the needs of consumer bankruptcy debtors. I understand that a portion of my dues will not be deductible as a business expense because NACBA advocates for legislation on behalf of consumer debtors.

By signing here you acknowledge that you have read and agree to NACBA's Membership Pledge
