

COMET CASH

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The account holder agrees that the Comet Card is the property of The University of Texas at Dallas. Depositing funds and using Comet Cash for purchases constitutes acceptance of the terms and conditions as stated below.

- Comet Cash is an optional account of pre-paid funds.
- There are no fees or interest charges to establish or use Comet Cash.
- No cash may be withdrawn on demand from the Comet Cash account.
- Returned checks will be assessed a $25 fee, and the Comet Cash account will be suspended until the fee and returned check have been paid.
- The balance remaining in the Comet Cash account at the end of each semester will carry over to the next semester.
- An accountholder may request a Comet Cash refund only upon ending their association with UT Dallas. A written request or Request for Refund form is required.
- A Comet Cash refund is first credited to the accountholder's University Business Account. If no amount is owed to UT Dallas, a refund check is issued.
- The Comet Card may be confiscated by authorized UT Dallas staff if it is used by an individual other than the cardholder or misused in any other way (illegal transactions, etc.).
- Information regarding the Comet Cash account may be disclosed to third parties (a) when necessary to complete transactions, (b) when the account needs verification, (c) to comply with government agency or court orders, or (d) with the accountholder's written permission.
- UT Dallas is not responsible for any charges made on the card prior to its being reported lost or stolen.
