FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Jennifer McNeill Re-elected to Second Term on the NACCU Board of Directors

Phoenix, AZ – February 26, 2021 – Jennifer McNeill from the University of Alberta was re-elected for a second term to the NACCU Board of Directors during an electronic election held from January 20-27, 2021. The primary institutional membership of NACCU voted for two open board positions.

Jennifer, along with Kim Pfeffer from Emory University, were elected, and will begin a three-year term at the Annual Business Meeting during the NACCU Virtual Conference on Tuesday, April 20, 2021.

Jennifer McNeill is the program Manager for ONEcard at the University of Alberta in Edmonton, Alberta, Canada and has been instrumental in growing the campus card program.

Jennifer has presented on a variety of topics at conferences and on webinars. She has been a committee member with Membership, Corporate Relations, Canadian Conference Committee and most recently, the board representative to the Volunteer Development Committee.

Jennifer has served one term on the NACCU Board. Jennifer served on the Membership Committee for a number of years, and enjoyed sharing the benefits of membership with new campuses or reacquainting existing members with the growing resources provided by NACCU. She has attended many annual conferences as a presenter, roundtable facilitator, moderator organizer, and moderator. Jennifer also continues to engage the Canadian region by welcoming members of this growing group at the Canadian Meet and Greet held at the beginning of each conference. Jennifer has played key roles in the organization of many Canadian regional NACCU conferences (NACCU Canadian Campus Card Conference) serving on committees for sponsorship, registration and marketing. She chaired the NACCU Canadian Campus Card Conference committee for two years, hosting the 2017 NACCU Canadian Campus Card Conference at the University of Alberta which attracted over 60 attendees from across Canada. In addition to NACCU activities, Jennifer served on the TouchNet OneCard (formerly Heartland Campus Solutions) Advisory Group providing feedback and testing for enhancing Touchnet’s systems and equipment.

NACCU is proud to welcome Jennifer McNeill to her second term serving on the NACCU Board of Directors.
