The Greenbrier

- The Greenbrier is a family-friendly, world-class resort and is a National Historic Landmark.
- Known as “America’s Resort”, the Greenbrier has hosted 27 U.S. Presidents, royals, celebrities, and business leaders from all over the world.

Traveling to the Conference:

- The Greenbrier is in White Sulphur Springs, WV.
- Direct flights are available from Dulles and O’Hare to the Greenbrier Valley Airport, which is 20 minutes away. There will be a shuttle service provided.
- Shuttle service will be provided from the Roanoke Airport, which is 90 minutes away and Yeager Airport in Charleston, which is two hours away.

Lodging Options

- The housing options include single rooms, double rooms, suites, and even cottage rentals or estate homes if are traveling with a few colleagues or your family.

Restaurants

- On site, there are six restaurants and cafés, five bars and lounges and 24-hour room service.
- There will be stations for quick grab-n-go style meal options of purchase set up during the conference at times we expect higher volumes of people trying to get breakfast or lunch that are not included with the conference.
- The town of White Sulphur Springs is adjacent to the Greenbrier and the town of Lewisburg is only 20 minutes away. These small towns feature a wide variety of cuisines to suit all tastes. Local dining information in Lewisburg and White Sulphur Springs will be available on the NAE4-HA website.

Seminars on Wheels

- We will have 6 off-site tours
  - Fruits of Labor (Healthy Living & Workforce Development)
  - Outdoor Adventures (Healthy Living)
  - Greenbank Observatory (STEM)
  - Beckley Exhibition Mine/Tamarack (Citizenship)
  - Summit Bechtel-National Boy Scout Camp (Camping)
- We will have 4 on-site sessions available, such as culinary demonstrations, falconry, and the Bunker Tour (a top-secret U.S. government relocation facility for Congress).
- Seminars on Wheels will be held on Sunday, November 3rd with a few on Friday, November 7th, so plan your travel schedule accordingly.

States Nights Out

- States Night Out will be on Wednesday, November 6, 2019 with options of either dining in Downtown Lewisburg or dining at The Greenbrier. Any states dining in Downtown Lewisburg will be able to choose between two seating options (5:30 pm or 7:00 pm). More details will be forthcoming once they are finalized.
The 2019 Conference at a Glance

1. What are my housing options and approximate costs?

- Gable Guest Rooms $223 per room, per night
- Traditional Guest Rooms $233 per room, per night
- Superior Guest Rooms $243 per room, per night
- Deluxe Guest Rooms $253 per room, per night
- Draper Suites $263 per room, per night
- Spring Row/Paradise Row Cottages $273 per cottage, per night
- Multi-Bedroom Cottages $263 per bedroom, per night*

*Based on all bedrooms of accommodation being occupied

☆ This room prices listed above include a $5 rebate fee for the NAE4HA conference as well as the $39 daily resort fee per room.
☆ Historic Preservation Fund Fee: 6.5% will be added to all charges
☆ An additional $50 per night will apply to each third and fourth adult occupant in the room.
☆ The Greenbrier deposit requirement is equal to one night's room and tax charges.

Gable Guest Rooms
- Gable Rooms are quaint rooms averaging 150 square feet.
- Featuring one double bed, these rooms can accommodate up to 2 people.
- Rollaway beds and/or cribs cannot be added to these rooms.
- Gable Rooms are not handicap accessible.

Traditional Rooms
- Featuring 250 square feet with one king bed or two double beds, Traditional Rooms can accommodate up to 4 people.
- Traditional Rooms are not handicap accessible.

Superior Rooms
- Superior Rooms offer an average 400 square feet.
- Can accommodate up to 4 people
- Featuring either one king bed or two double beds,
- Some Superior Rooms are handicap accessible with wider doors, showers with no lip and grab rails.

Deluxe Rooms
- Deluxe Rooms offer either one king bed or two double beds
- Can accommodate up to 4 people
- Some Deluxe Rooms are handicap accessible with wider doors, showers with no lip and grab rails.
The 2019 Conference at a Glance

Draper Suites
- Draper Suites are the largest single rooms at The Greenbrier.
- They offer one king bed or two double beds as well as a sitting area with a queen sofa bed.
- Accommodates 4 people with the one king bed and queen sofa bed option
- Accommodates 6 people with two double beds and queen sofa bed option

Spring Row Legacy Cottages
- The Spring Row Cottages were given their name because of their proximity to the spring, originally the main attraction of the resort.
- Each has a porch, parlor, wet bar, dressing area and large bathroom. Select cottages complete with working fireplaces.
- Cottages have one bedroom and are furnished with either one king bed or two double beds as well as a sofa bed and can accommodate two to six people.
- Accommodates 4 people with the one king bed and sofa bed option
- Accommodates 6 people with the two double beds and sofa bed option

Multi-Bedroom Cottages
- There are numerous cottages at the Greenbrier that offer 2-4 bedrooms.
- These cottages will accommodate between 4-10 people.
- These cottages offer a lot of space for entertaining, so these might be a good option for a state to house several colleagues.
- Note that the conference rate is based per room in these cottages and each room must be occupied to receive the conference rate.

2. What are my parking options if I drive a vehicle?
- Valet Parking, if utilized, is $25.00 per vehicle, per day.
- Self-parking is complimentary.

3. When do I need to be there? When are we done?
- Individuals will want to travel to the conference over the weekend of November 2nd and 3rd. Seminar-on-Wheels start on the morning of Sunday, November 3rd and the conference will be in full swing on Monday morning, November 4th with seminar sessions #1 at 9am.
- The conference ends on Thursday evening following the awards banquet, but there will be some additional seminar on wheels on Friday, November 8th that you can partake in before heading home.
- Room rates apply 3 days pre and post conference based on availability, so we invite you to arrive early and/or stay late to enjoy the Greenbrier and surrounding area.
The 2019 Conference at a Glance

4. If I bring my family with me, what can they do while I attend the conference?
   - There are many family friendly activities available at the Greenbrier including horseback riding, a playground, bowling, biking, and indoor pool
   - The Greenbrier’s Adventure Zone promises to create lasting memories for young guests between the ages of 3 and 12. There are half day, full day, and evening packages. Contact the Greenbrier for additional information and rates.
   - The Greenbrier will also arrange babysitting, if needed.
   - The NAE4HA Conference friends and family committee will be providing a space with games and activities as well as snacks for families to visit during the conference.
   - Want to explore the area? – Families can find two caves nearby to tour (Lost World Caverns and Organ Cave), a National Fish Hatchery to visit down the road from the Greenbrier in White Sulphur Springs, and Disc Golf in the Greenbrier State Forest, just to name a few activities.

5. What should I wear to this conference?
   - The Greenbrier does have a dress code and they appreciate our adherence to and support of their dress codes. http://www.greenbrier.com/HomePage-Sub-Pages/About-The-Greenbrier/Resort-Policies/Dress-Code
   - SUGGESTED PACKING LISTS
     - LADIES - Resort Attire, Cocktail Attire, Formal Attire, Knit Tops, Skirts/Slacks, Dress Denim, Comfortable Walking Shoes, Athletic/Swim Attire for planned activities
     - GENTLEMEN - Resort Attire, Jacket & Tie, Collared Shirts, Dress Slacks, Dress Denim, Comfortable Walking Shoes, Athletic/Swim Attire for planned activities
   - DENIM RESTRICTIONS
     - No denim in the Main Dining Room (dinner only), No denim on the Golf Courses or Tennis Courts
   - JACKET & TIE
     - Jackets and ties are required in the Main Dining Room (dinner only), Jackets are required in the Casino Club after 7:00pm, Jackets are suggested in Prime 44 West and Lobby Bar

6. Is there free Wifi available?
   - YES, Resort-Wide Wireless Internet! It is part of the Daily Resort Fee
   - Other parts that are part of the Daily Resort Fee:
     - Morning Coffee Service
     - Afternoon Tea and Concert
     - Nightly Movies in the Theatre
     - Historical Tours & Presentations
     - Fitness Equipment (at Tennis Center or Indoor Pool)
     - Cyber Café with High-Speed Internet
     - Children’s VIP Cards
     - Resort-Wide Wireless Internet
     - Use of Indoor & Outdoor Pools
     - Champagne Toast in The Casino Club
     - On-Property Transportation
     - Hiking & Meditation Trails
     - Springhouse Entertainer Cabarets
The 2019 Conference at a Glance

7. Tell me more about my travel options

- Greenbrier Valley Airport
  - Located north of Lewisburg, WV, approximately 30 minutes away from the Greenbrier.
  - Direct flights are available from Dulles and O’Hare.
  - There will be a shuttle service provided from the airport to the Greenbrier.

- Roanoke-Blacksburg Regional Airport (Virginia)
  - Approximately 90 minutes away from the Greenbrier.
  - You are welcome to rent a vehicle as well as we are working on plans with Virginia Tech to provide shuttle service for a nominal fee.

- Yeager Airport (Charleston, WV)
  - Approximately 2 hours away from the Greenbrier.
  - You are welcome to rent a vehicle as well as a shuttle service will be provided for a nominal fee.
  - If you rent a vehicle, there are two toll booths between Charleston and White Sulphur Springs that will be $2 each ($4 total) one way.

- Amtrak Train
  - There is a train station in White Sulphur Springs across the road from the Greenbrier.
  - Currently the stop is on the Cardinal Route between Washington, D.C., and Chicago.
  - 51 (westbound) stops at the Greenbrier at 5:05pm.
  - 50 (eastbound) stops at the Greenbrier at 11:39am.