

Strategic Framework 2024-28

Vision	A world where family and community engagement is universally practiced as an essential strategy for improving learning, strengthening education, and advancing equity.
Mission	A professional membership association dedicated to advancing high-impact policies, practices, and research in family, school, and community engagement to promote optimal child development, student achievement, and youth outcomes.
Membership	NAFSCE members include diverse early childhood and K-12 educators, family liaisons and coordinators, family-facing professionals, parent leaders, policy makers, state and local education administrators, higher education faculty, researchers, and community and national organizational leaders committed to FSCE from cradle to career.
Guiding Principles	CAPABILITY Foster the field’s ability and capacity to implement high-impact evidence-based strategies and practices.	CONNECTIONS Cultivate networks around policies and practices that nurture meaningful home, school, and community connections.	COGNITION Promote the knowledge and understanding that engaging families is essential to improve children’s learning.	CONFIDENCE Inspire efficacy and collective will among the field to initiate and sustain reform.	COMMITMENT Share power with families as full and equal partners in their children’s learning and in school improvement.
