

NAMB Announces Partnership with CF Wholesale

Washington, DC – May 1, 2020 – The National Association of Mortgage Brokers (NAMB) today announced that Charlotte, NC-based lender CF Wholesale entered into a partnership with the Association.

“CF Wholesale is a key supporter and advocate of independent mortgage brokers and NAMB,” said Rocke Andrews, President of NAMB. “We value the relationship and this alliance will help NAMB deliver more resources and platforms to our members so they can most effectively grow market share.”

As a lender-partner, CF Wholesale knows what is important to brokers, and understands the importance of efficiency when brokers have a hands-on approach. They are committed to giving brokers tools, training, efficiency, and experience so they can compete for the business of the modern consumer. CF Wholesale has spent time and resources getting the right processes in place and are serious about ensuring that brokers are put in the best position to succeed. For more information, please visit their website at <https://cfwholesale.com/>

# #

About the National Association of Mortgage Brokers (NAMB)

NAMB is a trade association of mortgage professionals with membership in all 50 states and the District of Columbia. NAMB provides education, certification and government affairs representation for the mortgage industry. For more information, visit NAMB.org.