

NAPABA Convention 2016

Lost in Translation: Language Access Fifteen Years After EO 13166 CLE Materials

1. Legal Basis for Language Access

- a. Title VI -- See Department of Justice website for statute, regulations, and other resources: <http://www.justice.gov/crt/about/cor/coord/titlevi.php>
- b. Lau v. Nichols, 414 U.S. 563 (1974) - <http://caselaw.findlaw.com/us-supreme-court/414/563.html>
- c. Executive Order 13166 - <http://www.justice.gov/crt/about/cor/Pubs/eolep.pdf>

2. Access to Justice – Courts, Administrative Proceedings, and Legal Services

Increasing Access to Justice for Limited English Proficient Asian Pacific Americans: A Call to Action, National Asian Pacific American Bar Association (May 2007) <http://c.yimcdn.com/sites/www.napaba.org/resource/resmgr/Docs/IncreasingAccessMay07.pdf>

3. Resources

- a. www.lep.gov
 - i. AAPI Community LEP Charts by DOJ-CRT
 1. http://www.lep.gov/maps/aapi/ACS12_5YR_USMAP_Asian_Categories.pdf
 2. http://www.lep.gov/maps/aapi/ACS12_5YR_USMAP_Asian_Categories_RAW%20COUNT_with_Pies.pdf
 - ii. Federal Agency Plans http://www.lep.gov/guidance/fed_LEP_Plan.html
- b. DOJ “Know Your Rights” brochures <http://www.justice.gov/crt/about/cor/pubs.php#KYRB>
- c. Summary of State Law Requirements Addressing Language Needs in Health Care, National Health Law Program (January 2008) <http://www.healthlaw.org/publications/summary-of-state-law-requirements-addressing-language-needs-in-health-care#.Vbv8vNViko>