Purpose

Core Values

Relationships / Education / Ethics

Purpose

The Society of Financial Service Professionals exists as a community of credentialed professionals whose common purpose is to ethically serve their clients. FSP's local Chapters and national society provide personal access to world-class resources and knowledge that help members build their professional networks, enhance their knowledge base, and grow their practices.

Mission Statement

FSP's mission is to promote professionalism among its members by:

- Cultivating mutually beneficial relationships among credentialed financial service professionals
- Delivering top-quality continuing educational programming
- Establishing the highest standard of ethical conduct

Goal

To help financial service professionals deliver the highest level of client service possible

Diversity Statement

The Society of Financial Service Professionals is committed to creating and nurturing an inclusive community for financial service professionals. We recognize that diversity of age, gender, ethnicity, and practice specialty will strengthen our ability to honor our core values of relationships, education, and ethics.

Chapter Planning Best Practices/Ideas

- Review Chapter bylaws for operating guidelines; review prior strategic plan/on-going projects.
- Ensure Board/Committee Chairs are versed in their responsibilities and organizational goals.
- Set annual calendar and due dates for Board/Committee activities by July 1.
- Track progress of Board/Committee activities throughout the year; follow up promptly on late/missed assignments.

Ideas for Chapter Planning

- The President should begin planning for the Chapter year in office from the first day as President Elect and throughout that year.
- The President Elect should work closely with the Nominating Committee as they will be selecting his or her leadership team.
- During his or her term of office, the President should be looking for leadership candidates because that will be his or her responsibility as Nominating Committee Chair.
- Debrief the leadership training with the new Board as soon as possible following the event. Set the date for the Planning Day. Make sure everyone going on to the new Board understands their roles and assignments and what they need to prepare for the meeting.
- The Planning Day should be a culmination of the planning process, not the beginning.
- Prior to Planning Day and the new Board assuming office, the President should meet with each Board member (over coffee, breakfast, etc.), get to know them, their business, their leadership style, their personal goals, and what they want from FSP.
- Prior to Planning Day, the President should meet with the officers and key committee chairs to discuss their goals and objectives—and how they fit in with the overall plan.
- Prior to Planning Day, the President should meet with the Chapter Exec to put together the agenda and materials needed for the session.
- At the Planning Day and subsequent Board meetings, the President is charged with making the best use of everyone's time, keeping to the agenda, making sure every voice is heard, and setting expectations for performance.
- Your volunteers work hard on behalf of the organization. Make Planning Day a fun event. After the business meeting, have an informal social time. Invite spouses/significant others.
- KEEP IT REAL. Recognize that volunteers have day jobs. Challenge goals are fine, but make sure the Chapter Plan is realistically within the capacities/capabilities of your group to execute with success. Cover core elements first—Leadership/Value Proposition/Membership; then add adjunct programs like Professionals Day.

Leadership Development Best Practices/Ideas

- Review Chapter bylaws for leadership eligibility requirements and election process
- Staff a Nominating Committee. Ensure variety of disciplines & ages are represented
- Set calendar for leadership identification/recruiting/training activities.
- Purposefully recruit for diversity and youth in leadership roles.
- Track progress at every Nominating Committee & Board meeting.

Ideas for Leadership Development

- Charge Committee Chairs and Board to look for “rising stars” with leadership talent in their groups and in the Chapter at large. Identify those people to the Nominating Committee.
- Work with senior-level executives, partners, and GAs to identify young people/junior partners who may benefit from leadership experiences in the Chapter.
- Have a succession plan to prepare future leaders. Helpful if candidates bring hands-on experience in Membership and Professional Development.
- Establish a new Board onboarding procedure and ensure leaders know where to access resources and National staff.
- From new members come new leaders. Immediately engage new members in volunteer work whenever possible—have a process to do so.
- Connect younger members with seasoned veterans for leadership insights and mutual personal professional development opportunities.
- Promote opportunities to get involved and make a difference. “Assume consent”. Create a culture where members understand that as part of a volunteer organization, they will provide service. Publicize volunteer opportunities: specific tasks, episodic volunteer opportunities, service on Board and committees.
- Publicly recognize volunteers at every opportunity. Feature them in a “spotlight” story in your newsletter or Web site. Put notice of new officers in local media.
- Leadership, like membership, is all about asking someone. Personal invitations are best.

Calendar: Nominating Committee/Leadership Development

- May–June: Nominating Committee Chair conducts research
1. Obtains feedback from outgoing leadership team on prospective volunteers
- July: Nominating Committee selected
1. Committee members invited to serve
 2. Committee members provided a copy of the Chapter bylaws regarding the nominations and election process
 3. Asked to review their list of connections for possible Board candidates for consideration
- August: Convene Nominating Committee
1. Review list of those progressing through the Chairs
 2. Review list of potential additional nominees
 3. Select viable candidates
 4. Create list of second/third alternates
 5. Determine which Nominating Committee member will be responsible to recruit each candidate
 6. Nominating Committee members should be versed in position requirements, desired skill set, time commitment, and resources for training and support
 7. Connect with candidates and recruit
 8. Report progress to Chair
- October: Nominating Committee meets
1. Report on recruiting progress
 2. Explore additional possibilities if first or second choice declines
 3. Start filling in slate of officers, names of others who will serve in other capacities, such as committee chair
- November: Nominating Committee meets
1. Create final slate of officers and other volunteer names
 2. Chair presents to President, President Elect, and Board
- December: Candidates notified of their placement on the official slate
- Spring: Notification of slate of officers presented to Chapter members
1. The Nominating Committee announces nominations for the offices of President, Vice President, Secretary-Treasurer, and members of the Board of Directors to the membership not less than forty-five (45) days prior to the annual meeting.
 2. The final list of nominees, if changed from the original announcement, must be provided to the membership not less than 10 days prior to the annual meeting.
 3. New officers are elected at the Chapter's annual meeting and immediately installed in office.

Professional Development Best Practices/Ideas

- Staff a PD Committee. Ensure variety of disciplines & ages are represented.
- Set calendar for specific program/event activities throughout the Chapter year.
- Ensure there is a membership recruitment/retention element to every event/function.
- Set goals for engagement/participation and track progress at every PD & Board meeting.

Ideas for Programs and Engagement

- Purposefully recruit diverse members to serve on Professional Development Committee.
- Survey members for meeting preferences—venues, times, topics, types of events, Speaker suggestions, panels, case studies, etc.
- Use National Society Resources:
 - FSP Case Study Programs
 - Webinars
 - Journal Live - conference calls with the author sessions
 - Study groups using Journal and Sections newsletter articles
- Contact the Professional Development group at National for trending topics, event and speaker ideas.
- Offer CE credits for all disciplines.
- Intersperse social events in calendar year. Ensure there is adequate time for networking at all functions.
- Define event marketing strategy—number of email “touches” to members/nonmembers, Web site, social media (Facebook, LinkedIn, Twitter), print.
- Continuously demonstrate value. All marketing communications should focus on how the program topic benefits the member. Follow up post-meeting—put a “Here’s what you missed” message to nonparticipants following event.
- Take photos at every event. Post on Social Media and Web site, tag people. Submit to local media and online news outlets. Along with publicizing event & Society, show members engaging in Chapter programs—how their professional expertise benefits the community.
- Offer programming/value in summer months—educational program, webinars, or relaxed social events where people have time to connect.

Membership Best Practices/Ideas

- Staff a Membership Committee. Ensure variety of disciplines and ages are represented.
- Set a recruiting expectation for all Board members.
- Set calendar for specific recruitment/retention activities throughout the Chapter year.
- Track progress towards Membership Goals at every MC & Board meeting.

Ideas for Retention

- Continuously promote member benefits—local and National value. Teach people how to use benefits and personal connections to their best advantage.
- Get more members involved assisting with small tasks, serving on committees, becoming a Board member. Engage new members in volunteer roles immediately.
- Survey members for ways they can volunteer use their office space, speak or facilitate at event, greet at meeting, sponsorships, committee or board service.
- Have specific strategies for engaging new members in their first year.
- Implement tracking system to see who participates in meetings. Thank those who attend. Reach out to those who don't and see what types of events interest them.
- Hold a retention Phone-A-Thon in November. Personally contact unrenewed members.
- Create/offer/promote a WOW event or service annually that captures members' attention.

Ideas for Recruitment

- Promote the Young Professionals membership category with reduced dues rates for Regular and Associate members age 40 and under.
- Use the Chapter Membership Marketing Tools – resources from FSP National including brochures, flyers, social media guide and much more.
- Promote the Membership Growth Initiative with reduced National dues rates for recruiters.
- Have the Board and Membership Committee list of all the people they know who should be members. Solicit names from members. Create a strategy to follow up and invite to join.
- Submit prospect names and contact information to National to include in National membership outreach efforts.
- Purposefully recruit young and diverse members. Immediately engage them in volunteer and leadership roles in the Chapter.
- Connect with younger members and ask them what they want out of their FSP membership. Ask them for names of other young professionals who would benefit by joining & to add to your prospect database.
- Visit with senior decision makers at local firms - accounting, legal, financial planning, insurance agency managing partners/GAs. Show value of FSP for their younger associates—education and networking to grow their business.
- Conduct joint meeting with other local organizations such as FPA, AICPA, Bar Association, WIFS, NAEPC, financial service associations organized along gender or ethnic affinity lines. Introduce new prospects to value of FSP membership.

CHAPTER MICROSITES AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT (the "Agreement") is made and entered into this _____ day of _____, 20__ ("Effective Date"), by and between the SOCIETY OF FINANCIAL SERVICE PROFESSIONALS (hereinafter "FSP"), of Newtown Square, Pennsylvania, and the _____ FSP Chapter (hereinafter "Chapter"), of _____.

BACKGROUND

FSP and Chapter understand the need for Chapter to have an up-to-date Web presence in order to effectively provide value to existing members and to promote the benefits of membership to potential members. Further, FSP and Chapter recognize that maintaining a Web presence is challenging in terms of costs, technical expertise, and time for maintenance, updating, and training. Therefore, it is FSP's objective to support Chapter by making available a templated Web site ("Microsite") with certain automated content and optional customized features.

TERMS

In consideration of the mutual promises contained herein, the parties agree as follows:

- Features. The FSP-provided Microsite will include the following features:
 - Home page that includes FSP branding; links to: Join/Renew, National events, "About FSP" and Contact information will be provided.
 - Officer listing (automated from FSP's database).
 - Chapter dues rate, including full and pro-rated dues in various categories (automated from FSP's database).
 - Calendar feature that includes FSP national programs and events and allows the Chapter administrator to post Chapter programs and events.
 - National Member Discount Company ads will be shown on home page.
 - Sponsorship feature that allows Chapter to insert unlimited sponsor data, including a sponsor image, links to sponsor's homepage and sponsor-related information.
 - Custom pages—preformatted pages with custom Chapter content, for example, a Chapter newsletter.
 - Member-only Directory (a link to log-in protected data from the FSP database).

Additional features may be added at FSP's discretion. Features may be discontinued by FSP upon thirty (30) days' written notice to Chapter.

- Chapter Responsibilities. Chapter will have the ability to create and/or update certain Microsite content. Chapter has responsibility for ensuring the accuracy of and for maintaining this Chapter-provided data. Chapter agrees not to post information on the Microsite that violates the intellectual property rights or other legal rights of any third party.
- Sustainability. It is understood and agreed that it is the intention of this Agreement that the Microsites will be database-driven and will operate with minimum hands-on intervention from FSP staff. Training will be provided on an as needed basis.

4. Security. FSP agrees to maintain the security of the Microsite and will provide limited security authorizations to Chapter designated personnel as necessary to fulfill Chapter's obligations herein.
5. Custom Requests. Chapter may submit requests for FSP to build out custom features for the Microsite to the FSP Chapter Development staff. Requests will be honored based on the availability of FSP resources and upon Chapter acceptance of pricing for custom services.
6. Fees. Except as noted in Paragraph 5 for custom services, the Microsite will be provided to Chapter at no cost during the initial term of this Agreement. Following the initial term, the parties agree to negotiate in good faith a mutually acceptable compensation provision, with the possibility that the Microsite will continue to be provided at no cost.
7. Term and Termination. This Agreement will become effective as of the Effective Date and shall, unless terminated as provided herein, remain effective for an initial term of one (1) year. The Agreement shall automatically renew for successive one (1) year periods unless otherwise terminated by either party for any reason or for no reason by giving notice to the other party not less than thirty (30) days prior to the end of the term.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Agreement may be terminated by either party immediately upon notice if the other party: (a) becomes insolvent; (b) files a petition in bankruptcy; or (c) breaches any of its obligations under this Agreement in any material respect, which breach is not remedied within thirty (30) days following receipt of written notice from the other party.

8. Ownership. The parties agree that FSP owns all right, title and interest in FSP-provided content and trademarks. The parties agree that Chapter owns all right, title, and interest in Chapter-provided content and trademarks.
9. Limitation of Liability. Under no circumstances shall either party be liable for indirect, incidental, consequential, special or exemplary damages arising from this agreement, such as, but not limited to, loss of revenue or anticipated profits or lost business.
10. Indemnification. The parties agree to indemnify and hold harmless each other, their officers, directors, and employees, for any claims and expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees, arising out of or relating to their responsibilities herein.
11. Entire Understanding. This Agreement represents the entire understanding of the parties hereto. Additions or amendments to this agreement must be reduced to writing and signed by all parties.
