

Bio:

Michael Cronin, ND has been practicing Naturopathic medicine in Arizona since 1982 with his wife Kyle Ann Cronin, ND at Naturopathic Physicians Group. Dr Cronin did his residency in "Physical Medicine & Family Practice" at NCNM in 1980. He practices full time with a clinical focus on repairing the source of pain by restoring function using Regenerative Injection Therapy (RIT, prolotherapy and Platelet therapy) integrated with full scope naturopathic medicine.

Dr Cronin has been an active since 1978 focused on the professional development of Naturopathic medicine by evolving the practice of naturopathic physical medicine and advancing the access to Naturopathic medicine by increasing licensing of Naturopathic physicians nationally and internationally.

Founding board member of the American Association of Naturopathic Physicians

Past president of AANP (2012/13)

AANP lifetime achievement award 2018

Founder of Southwest College of Naturopathic Medicine and first president from 1992-1997

Trustees of the Institute of Natural medicine & chair of professional development committee.

Represented the Naturopathic profession at two WHO World Health Assemblies in Geneva

On the team that formed the World Naturopathic Federation.

Past chair & current member of Integrative Medical Consortium & chair of the AANP

Compounding Committee actively advocating protecting Compounding medications

Trustee of National University of Health Sciences 9 years.

Founding board and instructor of the Naturopathic Academy of Therapeutic Injection