

David R. Truman is the Director of Policy, Governance & Legal Services at the Philadelphia Bar Association. He joined the Association in April 2025 upon his retirement from the St. Louis County (Mo.) Prosecuting Attorney's office following a 27.5-year career. He is also a former Assistant Attorney General for the state of Missouri and, before law school, spent two years as a newspaper reporter in Charleston, W.Va. While practicing in St. Louis he was an active member of the Bar Association of Metropolitan St. Louis, serving on its Board of Governors for a total of 10 years and editing its scholarly journal for five years. He lives in Philadelphia with his wife and their 6-year-old wire-haired fox terrier.
