

Raymond E. Williams is a member of the NCBP Executive Council, where he serves as Vice-Chair of the Communications Committee and as a member of the Program Committee. Williams is a solo practitioner with offices in West Plains and Eminence, Missouri, where he assists individuals, businesses, and government entities in a broad range of legal matters. He served as President of The Missouri Bar in 2018-19 and was a member of The Missouri Bar Board of Governors from 2008-2020. He currently serves as President of The Missouri Bar Foundation Board of Trustees and as a trustee of The Supreme Court of Missouri Historical Society, and he previously participated as a member of the Missouri Joint Task Force on the Future of the Legal Profession and the Special Committee on Lawyers Living Well.

Williams is a member of the ABA House of Delegates and is the former Missouri State Delegate in the House of Delegates. He has served as a member of the National Conference of Bar Presidents' 21st Century Lawyers Committee and was the lead producer for programs entitled Partnering to Protect Native Americans: Why and How Bars Should Do It and Your Bar Association's "Civic Duty:" Preserving the Rule of Law.

Williams is a graduate of the University of Missouri-Columbia School of Law, cum laude, where he was a member of the Order of the Coif, the Order of Barristers, and Editor-in-Chief of the Missouri Law Review. Following graduation, he served as a law clerk for the Hon. John R. Gibson of the United States Court of Appeals for the 8th Circuit.