

WHY BE A PART OF NCBP?

Presidents-Elect and Incoming Presidents

Start your presidency well-prepared and ready to lead with:

- Leadership training specific to your role as bar president, whether in a mandatory, voluntary or affinity bar
- A peer network of current and former bar presidents ready and willing to share knowledge and practical tips
- Timely, in-depth insight into emerging issues in the legal profession, bar management, and governance, including the internal and external conflicts/battles various bars must manage

Current Bar Presidents

It's your time to lead, and NCBP can help you by providing:

- A network to share successes and challenges with colleagues in similar roles and learn how they are addressing these challenges
- Opportunities to be involved in shaping NCBP's national agenda by serving on committees and presenting on programs that are helpful to you in your role
- Cutting edge educational programs that assist you with the challenges during your year, such as threats to the rule of law and regulatory changes

Past Presidents

By staying involved in NCBP you can:

- Mentor future and current bar leaders by sharing your institutional knowledge and wisdom
- Stay connected with your colleagues across the country
- Influence the direction of bar leadership on a national level by participating in NCBP committees

WHY BE A PART OF NCBP?

Executive Directors

Take your association and leaders to the next level through an Organizational Membership! The Executive Director is the constant, guiding force of the bar association. NCBP can help you by providing:

- Education tailored for bar operations and executive leadership, including programs at the Midyear and Annual meetings and the NCBP Podcast “Leading the Bar”
- An Organizational membership that includes slots for 5 of your leaders, giving them access to ideas and programs generated by other bar associations
- Benefits to your bar association through improved governance, exposure to best practices, and leadership continuity

About NCBP

www.ncbp.org

Since 1950, the National Conference of Bar Presidents (NCBP) has been educating and connecting a unique community of current, former and future bar presidents across the country. Our mission is empowering, connecting and inspiring bar leaders and organizations. Our core values are leadership; inclusion, accessibility and belonging; collaboration; innovation; well-being and justice.

We invite you to join us as members -- either your bar as an organizational member with benefits for five bar officers, or as an individual member of the Past Presidents Circle -- and enjoy member rates for our Annual and Midyear Meetings!
