Fall 2021, 40-Hour Divorce Mediation Training, Online

Due to the Covid-19 pandemic, the NJ Supreme Court, and NY Part 146, have approved this training to be delivered online, live. You must attend all five days, and you must have a device with a camera and microphone, and sufficient internet speed to participate in this class.

Divorce mediation is rapidly becoming the preferred method for couples to get divorced. If you are an attorney, mental health or other professional and want to become a divorce mediator and receive training from New Jersey's premier association of professional mediators, you should take this course.

Program Features

- The faculty is composed of attorneys, mental health professionals, and financial professionals who mediate divorces regularly within New Jersey.
- Over 50% of our instructors are on the NJ 1:40 Court Economic Mediation Roster.
- Our multi-disciplinary faculty will expose you to different mediation styles.
- You will be a better mediator by learning from this diverse faculty.
- Classes are limited to a maximum of 24 students to provide individual attention and facilitate better class participation.
- There will be a ratio of approximately 1 instructor for every 8 students for role plays so that everyone gets to learn by doing.
- Weekend classes for your convenience.
- Follow-up teleconference 3 months after training to keep you on track to launch.
- $50 discount on our 6-hour Optional Supplemental Class (not required)

Method of Instruction

- Lecture: Learn from prominent mediators and other experts.
- Faculty demonstration: Learn by watching experienced mediators.
- Student role plays: Learn by doing.

Key Elements of Training

- Parenting, child support, alimony, equitable distribution, and domestic violence.
- Process: How a divorce mediation is conducted from beginning to end.
- Receive customizable documents, such as agreements to mediate, balance and budgets forms, and Memoranda of Understanding in both paper and electronic format
- Techniques: Learn what mediation is, what good mediation skills are, and how to use these techniques in your practice.
- Separate breakout session on challenges of mediating for attorneys
- 1:40 NJ Family Economic Program: Meets 40-Hour course requirement.*
- Approved for 24 hours of initial mediation training under NY Part 146.*
- CLEs: The course qualifies for 48 NJ CLE credits including 2.4 ethics credits.
- CPEs: The course qualifies for 48 CPE credits including 2.4 ethics credits.

Why Take Training From NJAPM?

- NJAPM is the largest mediation association in New Jersey with approximately 400 members.
- Our mission is to act as a training and educational resource for mediators.
- NJAPM is dedicated solely to mediation.

* Final placement on any court roster is at the discretion of the courts. Participation in a course does not guarantee placement on a court roster. Please see respective rosters for criteria for admission, including educational and experience requirements.
