Nurse practitioners hold advanced degrees and are trained to provide physical exams, diagnose and treat acute and chronic problems, interpret lab results and X-rays, prescribe and manage medications, and refer patients to other health professionals as needed.

Nurse practitioners can provide greater access to needed primary care services throughout Oklahoma. Please support full practice authority.

Association of Oklahoma Nurse Practitioners

#RightToPractice