

NPWH Membership: Supporting All APRNs in Women's Health

NPWH is the professional community representing nearly 14,000 certified Women's Health Nurse Practitioners. We invite all advanced practice registered nurses dedicated to providing comprehensive women's and gender-related healthcare across the lifespan to join.

NPWH welcomes all Advanced Practice Registered Nurses (APRNs) who care for women and provide specialized women's and gender-related healthcare to our community. Whether delivering care across the lifespan or focusing on a particular specialty, NPWH offers resources, advocacy, education, and a professional community to support your vital role in advancing women's health. Join us in shaping the future of equitable and compassionate healthcare for women and all individuals.

Supporting Your Clinical Practice

Continuing Education

NPWH offers high-quality continuing education for WHNP-BCs and all APRNs in women's healthcare professionals at every stage of their careers.

- Discounts on conferences, courses, webinars
- 10+ Free CE's annually for members

Clinical Updates

NPWH shares clinical updates and writes official position statements on current issues in women's and gender-related health that impact practice and the profession.

- Updates on the latest guidelines in women's healthcare
- Clinical position statements for WHNP-BCs

The Well Women Visit App

NPWH maintains the Well Women Visit App, a clinical tool downloaded by thousands of practitioners.

- Updates and opportunities to contribute to new clinical modules

NPWH Journal: Clinical Journal for Nurse Practitioners in Women's Health

Published by Springer Publishing, NPWH's peer-reviewed journal includes articles on clinically relevant topics, professional development, and opportunities to earn free continuing education.

- Complimentary digital copies
- 2 Free CE courses per quarterly issue
- Publication opportunities for research and clinical innovations

Grow as an WHNP-BC Expert and an Women's Health Advocate

News and Developments

NPWH curates a weekly e-News Brief and other digital newsletters to help members stay up to date on clinical issues that impact healthcare, and policy updates on topics relevant to women's and gender-related health.

- Weekly and monthly updates, resources, and clinical guidelines

Advocacy & Representation

NPWH represents the certified WHNP profession and other APRNs in federal advocacy efforts that impact patients and practices.

- Opportunities to get involved in advocacy efforts
- Materials to support you when speaking/writing to elected officials

Develop Your Women's Health Professional Career

Communities & Job Board

NPWH's Communities is your virtual networking space. Connect with other women's and gender-related care providers in this private, members-only network. Our job board helps you find new career opportunities.

Volunteer Opportunities

NPWH offers members volunteer opportunities:

- Serve on committees with other distinguished experts
- Volunteer for the NPWH Board of Directors
- Serve on the Editorial Advisory Board for NPWH Journal
- Volunteer for the planning committees of the NPWH annual conference and other conferences

Membership Options

Only $12.50
a month, annually

Voting NPWH Membership Categories

- Individual 1 year $150
- Individual 2 year option ($15 savings) $285
- Career Starter $99
- Retired WHNP-BC or APRN - $75

Non-voting NPWH Membership Categories

- Student 1 year option $75
- Student 2 Years ($30 savings) $120
- Associate (Non-NP, Non APRN) $175
- Alley Supporting Women's Healthcare- $250

Joint Membership

NPWH has teamed up with our colleagues at the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists (ACOG) to provide joint membership to our two great organizations at a discount! All benefits from both organizations at one low price.

Students not eligible for joint membership.*

About NPWH

From practitioners at the beginning of their careers to those who have been practicing for decades, our members benefit from our strong network, our valuable practice resources, and our efforts to advocate for the WHNP profession.

- We represent nearly 14,000 certified WHNPs across all 50 states.
- Over ⅓ of our members have been with us for 15+ years
- Our members have diverse educational backgrounds and specialties that address healthcare needs across a woman's and a person's lifespan.

