The National Association of Nurse Practitioners in Women’s Health is the trusted champion and essential professional resource for Women’s Health Nurse Practitioners and all advanced practice registered nurses who provide women’s and gender-related healthcare.

We value collaboration and build strong alliances with like-minded organizations and providers. The providers we serve are known experts in the primary, complex and specialty care of their patients, and are leaders and advocates in the advancement of healthcare toward a more just, healthy, and equitable world.

Our Mission

NPWH is the professional community for Women’s Health Nurse Practitioners and other advanced practice registered nurses who provide women’s and gender-related healthcare. We set a standard of excellence by translating and promoting the latest research and evidence-based clinical guidance, providing high-quality continuing education, and advocating for patients, providers, and the WHNP profession.

Our mission includes protecting and promoting a woman’s right to make her own choices regarding her health and well-being within the context of her lived experience and her personal, religious, cultural, and family beliefs.

Our Commitment

NPWH is committed to increasing inclusivity, diversity, and equity in our organization, the WHNP profession, the women’s and gender-related healthcare field, and beyond.

We actively seek to engage and amplify the voices that have historically been silenced, and ensure they are represented in our staff, leadership and programming. We work together with others to expand opportunities and promote diversity within the WHNP professional community. Through self and organizational assessment, education, professional development, and advocacy, we work toward equity in all aspects of women’s and gender-related healthcare.
