32nd Annual MD/PhD National Student Conference

Registration for the 2017 MD/PhD Student Conference is now open!

The program includes free time to enjoy the spectacular surroundings of the conference venue. The Conference will take place July 14-16 in Keystone, Colorado. For more than 30 years, the conference has brought MD/PhD students from across North America to Colorado to share their research, hear featured speakers, participate in small groups, interact with a career panel and enjoy the Rocky Mountains. Participants have the unique opportunity to network with their fellow MD/PhD students, meet leading researchers, and consider the evolving role of the physician scientist. Ten Diversity Travel Awards will be given to conference attendees. Students are strongly encouraged to apply for these up to $1000 awards that cover registration and travel expenses.
