

Dear APSA Member,

The 2019 AAP/ASCI/APSA Joint Meeting was a great success!

...And we couldn't have done it without you! There were over 300 APSA attendees from 90 institutions learning, networking, and collaborating this past weekend! If you were in attendance, please help us make next year's Annual Meeting even better by completing this brief survey by Friday, May 3rd. All survey participants will be entered in a drawing to win one of five $25 Amazon gift cards! We are so grateful for your continued support, and we hope to see you next year at the 2020 APSA Annual Meeting, April 3rd-5th in Chicago, IL!

Big Data & Big Dreams: Bioinformatics in Physician-Scientist Research

Are you interested in bioinformatics but have questions bigger than your data? Join the next APSA interactive session on TONIGHT, April 9th at 5 PM EST. Take this fantastic opportunity to ask your biggest questions to Dr. Jessica Tenenbaum, Assistant Professor in the Department of Biostatistics and Bioinformatics at Duke University School of Medicine and Chair of the Genomics and Translational Bioinformatics Working Group at the American Medical Informatics Association (AMIA). See the event page for details on joining the discussion!

Apply today to be a 2019-2020 APSA leader!

Are you interested in being a part of APSA leadership? Gain valuable experience with a national organization, and build on your strengths and interests by serving on one of our many committees! Elected positions are now closed, but positions on standing and ad hoc committees are accepted on a rolling basis. See the website for more information on the specific committees. Apply today to be among the next leaders of APSA!

Double Your Dollars

In honor of APSA's 15th anniversary, a generous donor has agreed to match contributions to our endowment up to $5,000 in 2019 and again in 2020. We need your help to meet our goal! All funds will go towards continuing to provide resources and advocacy for physician-scientist trainees. You can donate online on our website or during registration for the Annual Meeting. Thank you in advance!

Kern Lipid Conference Abstract Deadline

Abstract submissions are open for the 2019 Kern Lipid Conference! The conference will take place in beautiful Vail, CO, August 12th-14th, 2019. The theme of this year's conference is "Signaling Lipids in Health and Disease." Travel awards are available! Deadline to submit is April 30th.

Sincerely,

The American Physician Scientists Association (APSA)
