

Hardship Policy

The Pennsylvania Land Title Institute provides financial aid assistance for attorneys who wish to attend our accredited seminars, but who find it difficult to attend due to cost considerations (subject to the availability of funds). These are available on a confidential basis to attorneys who have financial need.

A request for CLE financial assistance must be filed no later than 30 days before the date of the seminar the applicant would like to attend in writing. CLE financial aid assistance is available for up to 50% of selected course fees for all attorneys in good standing with the state, based upon income verification as set forth below:

Attorney Discounts

- Recently Admitted Lawyers under 2 years -$50 discount
- Income up to $15,000 -50% discount
- Income 15,000-30,000-25% discount
- Income $30,001-$40,000 -15% discount
- Income above $40,000 - no discount
- Unemployed or severe financial hardship– no charge (verification required)

Application and Income Verification:

If you are a young lawyer, please forward proof of date accepted to State Bar to qualify for the young lawyer's discount and PA/NJ Attorney ID number.

For income based discounts, please forward a letter or email explaining the reasons for your request for financial aid assistance to the mailing address noted below or email address provided. Please include your full name, company (if applicable), address, daytime phone number, fax number, PA/NJ Attorney ID number, and e-mail address.

A letter from your current employer confirming your anticipated current year earnings should be included with your submission. If you are currently unemployed or have severe financial hardship, please include a personal statement and verification of unemployment income confirming your current unemployment status with your submission.

To receive consideration, please contact PLTI Executive Director, Robin Kelsh, via mail: PLTI, 1010 W. 8th Avenue, King of Prussia, PA 19406 or via email: rkelsh@plta.org. For questions please call the PLTI office at 610-265-5980.