

DR. AMIE B. WOLF-MEHLMAN, Ph.D.

*31 South Fullerton Avenue,
Second Floor
Montclair, New Jersey 07042
Licensed Psychologist – NJ3227, NY013177-1
973-744-4494
Fax: 973-744-4492*

EDUCATION

Ph.D. in Clinical Psychology 09/1988-05/1992, Fordham University at Rose Hill, Bronx, New York.

Master of Arts in Clinical Psychology (1989), Fordham University at Rose Hill, Bronx, New York.

Master of Arts in Counseling Psychology (1988), Teachers College, Columbia University, New York, New York.

Bachelor of Arts (1983), University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan.

EMPLOYMENT/RELATED EXPERIENCE

March 2008 -
Present

Wolf Mehlman Psychological Associates, LLC –
Montclair, New Jersey

Provide evaluation and treatment of children, adolescents, adults and families, stress management and relaxation training, court evaluation for personal injury cases, psychodiagnostic testing, as well as evaluation of custody and visitation matters for Judges and attorneys in Essex, Hudson, Middlesex, Morris, Sussex, Union and Warren counties.

January 1993 -
March 2008

Gerson, Hagovsky, Antonelli & Altman, LLC –
Livingston, New Jersey

Provide evaluation and treatment of children, adolescents, adults and families, stress management and relaxation training, court evaluation for personal injury cases, psychodiagnostic testing, as well as evaluation of custody and visitation matters for Judges

Curriculum Vitae – Amie B. Wolf, Ph.D.

and attorneys in Essex, Hudson, Middlesex, Morris, Sussex, Union and Warren counties.

June 1995 -
March 2008

Institute for Forensic Psychology (IFP) – Oakland, New Jersey

Provide forensic evaluation for police candidates, fitness for duty evaluations, custody, visitation, and personal injury.

September 1992 -
Present

Clinical Psychologist – Consultant – St. Mary's Hospital
Passaic, New Jersey

1992-1994 Duties: (20 hours per week) Individual and group psychotherapy, family therapy, behavior modification, as well as psychological assessment with an adult psychiatric in-patient population, presenting a wide variety of psychopathology. Short-term care for both voluntary and involuntary patients was provided, utilizing brief psychotherapy models of treatment. Currently hold title of consulting psychologist, work as a consulting staff member.

September 1991-
September 1992

Clinical Intern – Essex County Hospital Center
Cedar Grove, New Jersey

Supervisor: Wayne Young, Ph.D., Clinical Psychologist, and Department Chairman.

Duties: (42 hours per week) Individual and group psychotherapy, as well as extensive diagnostic screening and assessment with an adult psychiatric in-patient population, presenting predominantly severe and chronic psychopathology. This internship provided extensive training both experientially, as well as through comprehensive supervision and didactic seminars with professionals from a variety of orientations.

September 1990-
August 1991

Clinical Extern – Fair Oaks Hospital
Summit, New Jersey

Supervisor: Christine Hobbie, Ph.D., Clinical Psychologist, Adult Psychiatric Unit.

Curriculum Vitae – Amie B. Wolf, Ph.D.

Duties: (12-15 hours per week) Individual and group therapy with an adult psychiatric in-patient population, presenting a wide range of psychopathology.

September 1989 -
May 1990

Clinical Extern – Kessler Institute for Rehabilitation
East Orange, New Jersey

Supervisor: Thomas Galski, Ph.D., Director of Psychology and Brain Trauma Services, George Carnavale, Ph.D., Clinical Coordinator.

Duties: (15 hours per week) Neuropsychological and psychological assessment (using parts of the Halstead-Reitan Battery, MMPI, WAIS-R, Wechsler Memory Scale-R and range of other established assessment instruments), interpretation of results and report writing, treatment planning, and patient follow-up. Also attended in-patient rounds, intake evaluation training, outpatient cognitive remediation programs, and pain management (biofeedback and cognitive/behavioral therapy) program.

Clients: Patients with dementia, cerebrovascular disease, head trauma, memory disorders, psychiatric disorders, and chronic pain patients.

September 1981 -
April 1982

Residential Therapist – Ann Arbor Community Mental Health
Ann Arbor, Michigan

Duties: (15 hours per week) Residential therapy and professional team treatment, treatment planning, behavioral observation, and supervision.

Clients: Adult psychiatric patients with disorders such as depression, borderline personality disorder, schizophrenia, and manic depression. These patients had recently been discharged from long-term, inpatient psychiatric care, to this transitional facility.

Curriculum Vitae – Amie B. Wolf, Ph.D.

December 1980 -
August 1981

Residential Therapist – Eastern Nebraska Human Services
Agency, Blondo Treatment Facility Omaha, Nebraska

Duties: (20 hours per week) Member of professional treatment team, involved in residential treatment planning and implementation, behavioral observations, and supervision.

Clients: Children who were victims of neglect and various forms of abuse, leading to a variety of emotional and behavioral problems.